

Busking and road music in the pedestrian areas of downtown Nuremberg

The City of Nuremberg considers busking as an invigorating element in the center of Nuremberg. However, in order to exclude annoyances of the adjoining owner and a handicap of the pedestrian traffic, for this a special use permission is necessary, which is available in the Liegenschaftsamt der Stadt Nürnberg (Real estate office of the City of Nuremberg), Hallplatz 2, 90402 Nürnberg.

The following conditions must be observed:

1. At the same time only max. 5 musicians or groups (max. 5 persons) may arise in the pedestrian precinct of the city center.
2. The respective stand must be changed at the latest after 30 minutes (distance at least 100 m) and may no longer be used on the same day.
3. Electro-acoustic sound systems (speakers, amplifier, bullhorn, etc.) and amplified instruments may not be used.
4. Noisy instruments (eg. drums) and music groups are not admitted. For barrel organs apply particular conditions.
5. The use of animals is not permitted in connection with making music.
6. The performance should not be done professionally.
The sale of self-produced recordings require a separate permission. The fee for this additional 10.00 euro per day.

For the grant of the special use permit, an administrative fee will be charged. The fee is 10.00 euro for the first day and 5.00 euro for every further day.

Police and Property Office are authorized to stop musical performances if this is necessary for reasons of security and order of traffic, especially of pedestrian traffic or to avoid harassment.
